Opportunities Available for University Students/Graduates

TalentCorp is always committed to assist our higher learning institutions to get opportunities for Malaysian universities students/graduates in line with our objective to Optimize Malaysian Talent. Thus, I am pleased to share to you below information which we think will be beneficial to your students/graduates :-

1. Aspiring Accountants Program - For Non - Accounting Graduates.

This program is a foundation course to facilitate students from non-accounting discipline to train and qualify as Chartered Accountants. This program led by the Malaysian Institute of Accountants (MIA) and brought to you as part of the Economic Transformation Programme (ETP). The participants will also stand a chance to interact with the leadership team and be spotted to get employment with this big names.

Criteria of the students :
Graduated students with non-accounting degree CGPA 3.0 and above Start date 1st August There will be briefing session with assessment and interview session next week either 29th or 30th July. Will notify on the exact date, time and venue.
To find out more, get in touch with these leading firms who are authorized training employers:

2. Philip Morris Graduate Trainee Program

It is a 6 months, intensive program to expose the incumbent to the business specialization of your choice. Student will be exposed to real jobs that will further accelerate their potential, leadership skills and develop their business knowledge to prepare them for a leadership role within 3-5 years.

Criteria of the students:
Degree graduates in any discipline with minimum CGPA 3.00 or 75% grading and above Excellent extra-curricular achievement Those with less than 2 years working experience Strong communication and presentation skills Good analytical skills and enthusiasm to learn and self-develop Passionate in getting the most difficult things done. If they are interested please advise them to send their resumes to HRMalaysia@pmi.com and for more info, log on to http://www.pmicareers.com