Software Engineer at CRM & CONSULTING
Software Engineer (CRM & CONSULTING)

The Responsibilities:-
Develop and Support PHP base systems, customization, maintenance and troubleshooting. Develop and maintain technical documentation including both design and functional documents. Perform a mix of maintenance, enhancements and new development as required. Implement project applications according to specifications. Research technical issues and provide recommendations to enhance company websites. Work with external partners in the design and development of software solutions. Mentor junior development staff in PHP related technologies. Identify and troubleshoot issues as needed. Administer diagnostics to improve software stability and eliminate performance bottlenecks/security vulnerabilities. Software Development

The Requirements:-
Diploma/Bachelor of Software Engineering/Computer Science or related professional qualification. Minimum 1 year in a similar capacity. Excellent command of written and spoken English. Practical experience in CSS, HTML, JavaScript, Ajax, jQuery. Programming skill in object oriented PHP. Database skill in MSSQL and related databases. Ability to understand business requirements (user stories) and translate them into development tasks. Detail-oriented, innovative, well organized and enthusiastic with ability to work on multiple projects simultaneously and within tight timelines. Ability to work independently as well as a team player. Dynamic, highly motivated and a result-oriented team player with good interpersonal skills.

The Package:-
Monthly salary (RM 3000 –RM 3500). Probation period is 3 months. Once confirmed, he/she is entitled to a performance allowance based on performance and sole discretion of management. Annual Leave is 15 days. Medical Leave is 14 days. Medical and Hospitalization coverage. Management career opportunities and learnings.

Please forward all resumes to judy_g@scicom.com.my