

Young Talent Programme at Tetra Pak

Are You Looking for International Exposure?

Tetra Pak, the world's leading food processing and packaging solutions company is inviting candidates to apply for our Young Talent Programme.

Designed to groom future leaders, you will undergo a 2-year professional and management development in a cross-functional environment. The successful applicant will be rotated on various international job assignments for exposure and learning. You will join as a Solution Specialist with the following responsibilities:

Support the deployment of our world class service solutions in South Asia, East Asia & Oceania
Support the Technical Service team in its sales & marketing activities for the South Asia, East Asia & Oceania
Support Key Account teams in the sales and deployment of the company's service solutions to customers
Monitor and analyse financial performance of our service solutions
Mentors will be assigned to guide you on your professional development and career aspirations.

Do You Possess These Qualities?

Enthusiastic, curious, energetic, ambitious, willing to learn, result-oriented Engineering graduate who is a final year student in Business Management/ Masters in Business Management/MBA. Fluent in English Within 30 years of age. Local Malaysian.

Apply Now

Submit your resume to your Head of Department or email mayuri.ghosh@tetrapak.com by 25 May 2015 (Monday).

Learn more about Tetra Pak at www.tetrapak.com